Elizabeth Gilbert writes: "We are all inevitably jogging into old age. It can be a disturbing course, or it can be seen as simply one more in a series of life tasks which make the life process seem fully worthwhile." The Senior Center is the community focal point for programs and services that support us as we age. This enhances the individual, families, the community. We are dedicated to providing for the sustainability and accessibility of the Senior Center. It is place of passion, knowledge, health and fun.
